By bus: You can take the city bus to and from Saginaw. It’s an easy ride to and from downtown, but once you get off the bus, it’s a 15-minute walk to the campfire from the bus stop (Jackson and Wagner). Walk south on Wagner and enter Pall Corporation’s property (600 S Wagner Rd) to enter Saginaw Forest from the east. The campfire as shown on your map. The last bus leaves at 10:01, so folks would have to get walking there by 9:35 or so to make sure they made the bus.

Walking or biking: You can bike down Liberty to Saginaw Forest. There’s a bike lane most of the way, with about 50 yards with no shoulder. Be careful about biking home in the dark!

By car: Parking is available at the Pall Corporation property. Once you park (see location above) and enter U-M’s property, follow the walking path (about a 15-minute walk) to the campfire, located at the caretaker’s cottage on the south side of Three Sisters Lake. The route through the forest will be marked in reflective tape and directional signs! Don’t forget warm clothes and a flashlight/head lamp (and a change of clothes for if you’re partaking in the wader races).
