

WELCOME TO SEAS!

Your Pre-Fall Checklist

Between Admission and Enrollment

- Accept Your Offer:
 - Have your official transcripts sent to Rackham Graduate School
 - Log on to Wolverine Access and formally accept your offer
- Set Up U-M Email:
 - Activate your U-M username and email account
- Understand Financial Aid and Funding:
 - Complete your FAFSA (domestic students only)
 - Review and apply for additional funding and external scholarships
 - Make a financial plan
- Plan Housing:
 - Explore housing options in the Ann Arbor area, both on- and off-campus
- Join SEAS Community:
 - Be on the lookout for invitations from student leaders to connect with your SEAS peers on social media
 - Attend virtual and/or in-person admitted student events

Getting Ready for Fall

- Register for Orientation:
 - Check your @umich.edu email for Orientation information
 - Sign up for Orientation mid-summer
- Register for Classes:
 - Familiarize yourself with the course catalog and your specialization-specific requirements
 - Attend a session with the Academic Advising team on how to register for classes. Session info will be sent to your @umich.edu email
 - Backpack your courses in May and register for classes beginning on June 1
 - Questions about requirements? Contact seas.gradsupport@umich.edu
- Explore Ann Arbor:
 - Research local amenities, transportation and campus resources
- Attend SEAS Summer Webinars:
 - Join webinars for tips and essential information on starting your journey at SEAS
- Plan Your Arrival:
 - Decide your move-in date and arrange travel plans to Ann Arbor

Countdown to SEAS

- 30 Days Before:
 - Confirm all documents and requirements are completed
- 15 Days Before:
 - Revisit your SEAS student portal to confirm class schedules and registration

See you at Orientation, August 25-28, 2026!